AFTER SCHOOL DANCE CLASSES

Boys and Girls Ages 5-11

Creative Movement – Ballet – Tap – Jazz

Starting in Fall 2007, VCS will offer after school Dance Classes at the Leigh and Skyway Campuses. Instruction in the following levels will be taught by Miss Melissa Aguilar, a dance and color guard instructor for Valley Christian Junior High and High School. Miss Aguilar also has private studio experience teaching dance basics to young students.

Ages 5-7

Pre-Ballet & Creative Movement

This class is ideal for students who are being introduced to dance for the first time. Students explore music, creativity and the basics of dance through the use of props and dance games.

Ballet I & Tap

Students learn the basics of ballet and tap techniques and develop important skills, such as listening and ensemble dancing.

Ages 7-9

Beginning Ballet (Ballet I)

Students learn the fundamentals of body awareness, while focus is placed on techniques and strengthening. Children begin to accumulate a ballet vocabulary and begin barre work.

Intermediate Ballet (Ballet II)

Students focus on placement, center work, phrasing, and musicality, while continuing to develop ballet technique. There will be improvement in the dancers' posture and coordination.

Beginning Jazz (Jazz I)

Students learn the basics of jazz technique. Performance quality and expression are emphasized

Ages 9 to 11

Beginning Ballet (Ballet I)

Students learn the fundamentals of body awareness, while focus is placed on technique and strengthening. Children begin to accumulate a ballet vocabulary and begin barre work.

Intermediate Ballet (Ballet II)

Students focus on placement, center work, phrasing, and musicality, while continuing to develop ballet technique. There is improvement in the dancers' posture and coordination.

Beginning/Intermediate Jazz

Students learn the basics of jazz technique. Performance quality and expression are emphasized. Jazz II introduces more difficult jazz steps and a focus on technique and performance.
